Thank you for listening!

The Church of the Holy Trinity is a congregation of nearly 200 families that are diverse in background and joined together in Christ's love. The mission of the Church of the Holy Trinity is to be a visible and vibrant body of Christ, open and welcoming to all. We are committed by our faith in God to nurture each other on our life-long journey of discernment, and to be dedicated to healing, witness and service, so that all who enter our doors may discover a deeper relationship with God through Christ Jesus.

All are welcome to join us for worship on Sunday morning! We offer two services of Holy Eucharist (Communion) each week: a mostly spoken Rite I (traditional language) service at 8:00 AM, and a Rite II service (more modern language) with full choir and organ at 10:30 AM.

Also be sure to check the church website, HTTrinityWC.com, for more information about all of our parish activities, including our full concert schedule!

THE MUSICIANS

Ovidiu Marinescu, one of the outstanding musicians of his native Romania, was chosen to play at Carnegie Hall for Romanian President Constantinescu on an official visit to the United States. Soon after, he made his debut with the New York Chamber Symphony in Beethoven's Triple Concerto, followed by recitals in Merkin Hall (New York), Philadelphia, and Los Angeles. A product of the illustrious Romanian National Academy of Music, he won first prize and Music Critics' Award in the George Dima Cello Competition. In the United States, he studied with Wolfgang Laufer at the University of Wisconsin, and with Orlando Cole, at Temple University.

Equally outstanding as a conductor, Marinescu is the Director of the West Chester University Symphony, which under his leadership made a sold out debut at the Kimmel Center in Philadelphia and embarked in its first European tour. He served as the conductor for the Wilmington Orchestra between 2003-7, as the Music Director of the Manalapan Orchestra in New Jersey, and Principal Conductor of the Goppisberg Festival Orchestra in Switzerland.

A Parma Recordings artist, Marinescu has embarked on a long term recording project with the Russian Philharmonic featuring American orchestral music.

Andrew Hauze became the Minister of Music at Church of the Holy Trinity in 2009. Andrew is a graduate of the Helen F. Whitaker Fund Conducting Program at the Curtis Institute of Music and holds the degree of Bachelor of Arts in Music from Swarthmore College. In addition to his duties at Holy Trinity, Andrew has served on the faculty of Swarthmore College since 2006, where he is also Director of the College Orchestra. He has served as a vocal coach at the Bryn Mawr Conservatory of Music, the CoOperative Program at Westminster Choir College, and as an accompanist for the Florence Voice Seminar in Italy. Andrew holds the Associate and Choirmaster certifications from the American Guild of Organists, and he was honored to receive the prize for the highest national score on the Associate examination in 2009. His principal teachers have included Otto-Werner Mueller, Marcantonio Barone, Keiko Sato, and Jeffrey Brillhart.
