Praised by Gramophone Magazine for his "bold and expressive" playing, cellist Ovidiu Marinescu returns to First & Central for a program of solo cello music. One of the outstanding musicians of his native Romania, Marinescu has performed at Carnegie Hall, Merkin Hall (New York), Weill Recital Hall, and the Great Hall of the Moscow Conservatory, and has appeared with the New York Chamber Symphony, the National Radio Orchestra of Romania, Moscow Chamber Orchestra, the Russian Philharmonic Orchestra, Cleveland Philharmonic, Helena and Newark symphonies, Orquestra de Extremadura, and "Orchestra 2001," among many other.

Marinescu critically acclaimed first recording "Fiesta Latina" was followed by a recording of the complete Miaskovsky cello works with the Russian Philharmonic Orchestra and pianist Kenneth Boulton released by Cambria. His recording of the Bach Cello Suites, released by Navona Records, has received international critical acclaim, last year alone receiving over 50,000 plays on Spotify. The recent recording of the Arthur Gottschalk Sonata for Cello and Piano has received the Gold Medal at the Global Music Awards for 2014. Marinescu has ten other record releases as cellist or conductor.

Marinescu has commissioned and premiered many new works for cello solo, among which are those of Jae-Wook Kim, Andrew March, Andrea Clearfield, Richard Belcastro, David Ludwig, Paul Geissinger, and his brother, Liviu Marinescu. In 2000, Marinescu premiered with the Newark Symphony "Anecdote" for cello and orchestra by Hilary Tann, recorded this summer with Targu Mures Philharmonic in Romania for Parma Recordings, followed by the first performance of "Ostinato" by Liviu Marinescu with "Orchestra 2001" in Philadelphia. In January of 2015 he performed the premiere of a new work for cello and orchestra by Kile Smith, commissioned for him by Helena Symphony. Marinescu is on faculty at West Chester University.
